

S. No.	Theme	Name of the Speaker	Title of the presentation (Abstract)
1	Information for Development	Dr. Coetzee Bester (South Africa), Dr. Rafael Capurro (Germany) and Dr. Johannes Britz (USA) coetzee.bester@up.ac.za	Access to Information in Time of Crisis – A Holistic Model for Information in Developing Solutions in Communities
		Dr. Daniel Pimienta (Dominican Republic) pimienta@funredes.org	Impact of Infodemic situation caused by Covid19 Pandemic and Recommendations
		Dr. Pierre-Emmanuel Thomann (Belgium) pierre-emmanuel.thomann@eurocontinent.eu	How can Access to Information build Resilience to avoid Future Crises?
		Dr. Susana Finkelievich (Argentina) sfinquel@gmail.com	Access to Information and Digital Tools for Present and Future Crises in Latin America
		Dr. J. Prabhakar Rao and Dr. R. Siva Prasad (India) pjandhyala1@uohyd.ac.in ; sivaprasad53@gmail.com	Denial of Information: Sustaining Inequalities and Subjugating People
2	Information Literacy	Dr. Ramon Tuazon (Philippines) rtruazon722@yahoo.com	MIL Public Policies in Times of Crisis
		Dr. Tatiana Murovana (Russia) tmurovana@yandex.ru	Distance Teaching without MIL: What We have Learned from the Coronavirus Lockdown
		Dr. Therese San Diego Torres (Philippines) tpc.san.diego@gmail.com	Mainstreaming Media and Information Literacy (MIL) with Youth Organizations
		Dr. Dokora, L D K, Mr. I Madziko, and Dr. M Mavesera (Zimbabwe)	The role of media and information literacies (MILs) in combating COVID-19 infodemic: Some experiences from Zimbabwe
3	Information Preservation	Dr. Helen Amunga (Kenya) hellenamunga88@gmail.com	The Impact of Governmental Communication of Pandemic-Related Data on The Public's Response to A Crisis: Insights from Kenya's Handling of Covid-19
		Dr. Andrey Zaytsev (Russia) zaitsev@prlib.ru	Time of Crisis as an Indicator of Dependence on Information Technology: What digital history we will be able to preserve?
		Dr. Ramesh C Gaur (India) rcgaur66@gmail.com	Accessing Heritage during a Global Covid-19 Pandemic: Are Indian Cultural Institutions prepared to engage users in such situations?

4	Information Ethics	Dr. Gregory Simons (Sweden) gregmons@yahoo.com	Right to Information and not Manipulation: Lessons from the COVID-19 Pandemic
		Dr. Yves Pouillet (UNESCO, Paris) yves.pouillet@unamur.be	Why We Need Info-Ethics?
		Dr. Kachan K. Malik (India) kanchank.malik@gmail.com	Vocal for Local Information During COVID-19 Pandemic: Role of Community Radios in Addressing the Digital Divide in South Asia
5	Information Accessibility	Dr. Anna Belkina (Russia) aibelkina@rttv.ru	The Dangers of Shutting Out Voices in the Time of COVID 19
		Dr. M. Sridhar Acharyulu (India) cicsridhar@gmail.com	Governance Issues during Covid19: Information Deficit Aggravates Migrant Crisis in India
		Dr. Thaiane de Oliveira (Brazil) thaianeoliveira@id.uff.br	Open Science and Disinformation in times of Epistemic Disbelief: The Challenges for a Democratization of Knowledge
		Dr. Burri Ranga Reddy (India) dr.rangareddy@gmail.com	Access to Information in the Time of Crisis: Perspectives from COVID 19 Management
6	Multilingualism	Dr. Evgeny Kuzmin (Russia) kuzmin@ifapcom.ru	Multilingualism and Access to Information: Challenges and Opportunities in Crisis and Post-Crisis Time
		Dr. Gilvan Muller de Oliveira (Brazil) gimioliz@gmail.com	Multilingualism of Indigenous Peoples: Threats and Opportunities in the Face of the Covid19 Pandemic
		Dr. Prasannanshu (India) prasannanshu@gmail.com ; prasannanshu@nludelhi.ac.in	Multilingualism as a Reality, and a Remedy to the Pandemics' Challenges: A Look at the Governmental Role and Response to the Vulnerable Populations' Survival